

Date 20-9-2019

C.V. Hans van Selm Eur.Ing.

General Secretary Salvetti Foundation and EFNMS/AIMAN advisor

Had several positions in the European oil & gas industry. Professional Shell manager, coach and leader, with a successful track record managing large and complex projects in industrial maintenance, production operations and HSE management. Highlights in his career; The start-up of new oil production facilities in Syria and Maintenance manager of the biggest European gas field.

As HSE manager involved in incident investigations and the set-up of HSE governance and support systems. Ex executive member of the Dutch Maintenance organisation and Chairman of the Maintenance manager election. Presently General secretary Salvetti Foundation and jury member for the European Maintenance Manager Award election. Observer/advisor for the Italian maintenance organization AIMAN in relation to the European Federation of National Maintenance Societies. (EFNMS)