

CV of Diana Russinova

Diana Russinova is a founder and expert on road safety inspection at the Road Safety Institute her activity is focused on the identification and correction of road safety deficiencies in order to reduce the road accidents and fatalities in Bulgaria.

Mrs Russinova has more than ten years' experience in the field of transport management systems. She has participated in numerous projects whose the main purpose is the prevention from risks in the transport.

She is the author of a number of publications, articles and opinions referring to road safety. In 2018, she was a team leader carried out an independent study of the road conditions in the area of the crash near Svoje in August 2018. There were twenty victims. Later in October, she also managed an independent team investigating the road conditions in the area of severe CRASHES near the Gorana Studena. There were four victims.

From 2018 to now, Mrs Russinova is a member of an Interdepartmental working group, established by an order of the Minister of Regional Development and Public Works. The main purpose of this is group is amending and adding the existing legislation concerning road safety.

In the beginning in 2019 Mrs Russinova is a team leader who has achieved an independent inspection of the road conditions on the territory of the factory „Zlatna Panega Cement" JSC. She also is an co-author of a report of improving road safety in the area of the factory.

Mrs Russinova is a head of the team for preparation of a general Master Plan for Organization of the traffic management on the territory of Mirkovo municipality.

Diana Russinova is a head of team for road safety inspections in zone of eight crossroads with high risk of car crash accidents in Sofia city municipality.